Hobart Women's Health Centre inducted on to the Tasmanian Honour Roll of Women

The Hobart Women's Health Centre was one of two organisations inducted on to the Tasmanian Honour Roll of Women last Friday at a ceremony in Launceston.

The Tasmanian Honour Roll of Women was established in 2005 by the Tasmanian Government to recognise Tasmanian women who have made an outstanding contribution to the State. This year is the first time organisations have been included on the Roll.

Health worker Julianne Campbell said, "The Hobart Women's Health Centre is proud to be inducted on to the Tasmanian Honour Roll of Women and is especially pleased to be named in the first year organisations have been included on the Roll.

"We are humbled to be recognised alongside the 225 women and one other organisation that have been included since 2005 for their inspiration, commitment, compassion and leadership across many fields".

The Hobart Women's Health Centre was inducted for its service to health and human rights. The Minister for Community Development, Cassy O'Connor inducted the Hobart Women's Health Centre at the ceremony and acknowledged the Centre's long term commitment to women's health.

Hobart Women's Health Centre congratulates the Australian Women's Land Army (Tasmanian Division) the other organisation inducted on to the Roll.
